DAILY BRIEF

*USSR-Cuba: [Work on the establishment of a Soviet-built air and coastal defense system in Cuba is continuing.]

25X1

[redacted] two more SA-2 surface-to-air missile (SAM) sites have been set up, bringing the total number of confirmed SAM sites in Cuba to 13. SAM equipment is present at another location but still not in place. All three of these additional sites are in Oriente Province, but none are within range of the normal aircraft lanes serving the US Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay. Other sites almost certainly have been set up, particularly on the Isle of Pines, and in Camaguey and Oriente provinces, but these cannot yet be confirmed.

25X1

[redacted] the cruise-type coastal defense missile installation located at Banes probably now has at least some operational capability; one missile was positioned on one of the two launchers.

Common Market: [Belgium's Spaak is becoming increasingly cool to the idea of accepting more adherents--other than the UK--to the Common Market.]

[Spaak has long been cool toward the applications of neutral Austria, Switzerland, and Sweden for Common Market (EEC) association and now is increasingly inclined to oppose the applications of Denmark, Norway, and Ireland for full membership. In Spaak's view, all of these countries wish to join primarily for commercial reasons, and their presence might seriously impede efforts to develop a European political entity.]

[Moreover, Spaak is concerned that a European union approximating the present European membership of NATO might undermine the alliance in the "vital fields of defense and political coordination."]

[The EEC is likely to be under increasing pressure in the next few months to make a policy decision regarding the further extension of the European community--especially since Britain is committed not to enter the EEC until "satisfactory arrangements" have been worked out for its Free Trade Area partners.]

Ecuador: Rightist efforts to unseat President Arosemena suffered another setback on 27 September when congress, after a stormy 20-hour joint session of both chambers, rejected an impeachment resolution 64-33.

General dislike and mistrust of Vice President Varea was a major factor in the heavy vote against impeachment. The rightists now will probably try to replace Varea with a more acceptable successor before making another attempt to remove Arosemena.
